

*Embassy of the Republic of Cuba
Saint Vincent and the Grenadines*

Medical specialties to be offered in the Scholarship Plan and Resolution 283/2020 for the year 2026.
---

(The award of the scholarship does not include changes in the period of time or content to the study plan approved in the Republic of Cuba.)

Allergy (3 years)
Histology (4 years)
Nephrology (3 years)
Imaging (4 years)
Human Anatomy (4 years)
Immunology (3 years)
Pathology (3 years)
Clinical Laboratory (3 years)
Anesthesiology and Resuscitation (4 years)
Logopedia and Phoniatrics (3 years)
Angiology and Vascular Surgery (4 years)
Integral General Medicine (3 years)
Biostatistics (3 years)
Adult Intensive and Emergency Medicine (3 years)
Clinical Biochemistry (4 years)
Intensive Medicine and Pediatric Emergencies (3 years)
Cardiology (3 years)
Internal Medicine (3 years)
General Surgery (4 years)
Natural and Traditional Medicine (3 years)
Pediatric Surgery (4 years)
Microbiology (3 years)
Coloproctology (3 years)
Neonatology (3 years)
Dermatology (3 years)
Neurology (3 years)
Embryology (4 years)
Obstetrics and Gynecology (4 years)
Endocrinology (3 years)
Ophthalmology (3 years)
Pharmacology (4 years)
Oncology (3 years)
Normal and Pathological Physiology (4 years)
Orthopedics and Traumatology (4 years)
Gastroenterology (3 years)
Pediatrics (3 years)
Clinical Genetics (4 years)
Pediatric Psychiatry (3 years)
Geriatrics and Gerontology (3 years)
Hematology (3 years)
Hygiene and Epidemiology (3 years)

Graduates in Cuba (ELAM) must first do this specialty of General Integral Medicine to be able to choose as a second specialty for another one of the ones listed here.